HEAD OFFICE: LONDON, CANADA

London, June 20, 1918.

Sir Robert Falconer,
Toronto University,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir Robert Falconer:

Having Confirmed the arrangements for Convocation Hall with your Secretary in your absence, permit us to thank you for this privilege which we appreciate, and ask the still further favor of your presence in the chair on that occasion, Friday evening, June 28th.

Kindly advise if you can grant this.

Yours respectfully,

Gordon Wright

P. S. Aside from the decoration of mothers, we would unveil in Toronto the Kinsman war picture. The address of the evening will be given by the Rev. N. H. McGillivray, late with our forces in France.

Gordon Wright, Esq.,

Associated Kid of Canadian Expeditionary Forces,

London, Ont.

Dear Mr. Wright:

I have to thank you for the honour that you have done me in asking me to take the chair at the meeting of the Associated Kid, but I must ask you to excuse me as it is necessary for me to be present that evening at an important meeting of the Faculty of Medicine which was called some time ago for special business.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
